ENVISION EXPONENTIAL GROWTH AND SUCCESS

VDECelite is a unique and intimate learning experience for advanced dental knowledge and skill mastery. If you are a dental professional with more than a decade of experience and you envision a new level of mastery and profitable growth within the next two years, your vision will be realized through this one-of-a-kind Study Group.

ACHIEVE FULL-MOUTH MASTERY WITH HANDS-ON MENTORSHIP

Dr. Kwong's Full Mouth Rehabilitation methodology focuses on you, your realworld cases and the challenges you face in your dental practice. Through his elite Study Group you will have the opportunity to advance your techniques hands-on with live patients, and Dr. Kwong as your personal mentor.

Whether you're striving to elevate your problem-solving and clinical competencies, your people management skills, or your business and technology systems, your VDECelite membership will challenge and inspire you.

MEET YOUR NEW INNER CIRCLE

VDECelite members are prequalified through an interview process. Members will participate in private lectures, collaborate in mentored learning modules, and enjoy fine dining and networking with leading experts from the world of dentistry, business, human realtions and communications, and technology.

YOUR COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

Attendance at all lectures is mandatory in order to qualify for mastery level and VDEC elite program completion. Monthly VDECelite lectures are held in private boardrooms and 5-star restaurants within the dowtown Vancouver area. All meetings begin with a lecture at 6 pm, followed by knowledge sharing and fine dining at 8:15 pm. Some special events will require travel.

ABOUT VDECelite's FOUNDER…

Dr. Wilson J. Kwong

A graduate of the Faculty of Dentistry at the University of British Columbia, Dr. Kwong's passion for dentistry and patient care began in a small, rural community in BC. Today, Dr. Kwong is based in Vancouver where he founded his successful Oakridge practice, as well as Inspire Dental Group — a growing dental brand throughout the Lower Mainland. Dr. Kwong is also the founder of Vancouver Dental Education Centre (VDEC) for new dentists as well as VDEC elite—a master-level study group for A-List dental practitioners. He is a clinical instructor at the UBC Faculty of Dentistry and a respected lecturer for Nobel Biocare and Ivoclar throughout North America. Dr. Kwong is also a published author and member of the editorial advisory board for the professional journal Compendium.
